

SOLVE THE MAZE!

Tributaries by artist Simon Hughes is a mosaic: an artwork made up of many, many tiny ceramic tiles. It is there to be looked at, but did you know it is also a real maze you can solve?

FIND THE HIDDEN PICTURES!

Hidden in the walls of the labyrinth are ten things you might see in Canada. They are a bit abstract: that is, they look a little different than these pictures, so that they match the style of the artwork. Try to find all ten!
